KRISHNANAGAR (WEST BENGAL): Having saved goals aplenty during a sparkling soccer career, former India custodian Kalyan Chaubey has adopted the "offence is the best defence" approach in his maiden electoral contest, but says the new turf is "more competitive and cruel" with opponents always waiting to "hit below the belt".

In the fray as a BJP candidate from West Bengal's Krishnanagar Lok Sabha constituency, the 42-year-old Chaubey says he is logging in out for 17-18 hours daily, and travelling 150-200 kilometers to woo the voters in the primarily rural constituency that goes to the hustings on April 29.

"This maidan (turf) is more competitive, cruel, and tough. In football there are rules and regulations, then there is a fixed timing (for every match). But these are not there in politics.

"Here your rivals are
