

...district magistrate and superintendent of police on Sunday.

"The police told us that according to the post-mortem report it was a death by suicide. But we have taken the matter seriously and want the investigation to be done properly. The boy was kept in a child-friendly room and not in a lock-up of Mallarpur police station. We were told that the boy had used a piece of wire, that was tagged to a sound system in the room, to hang himself on Thursday night,"

Shakraborty said. Superintendent of Police Jyoti Singh said that necessary documents have been handed over to the WBCP-BJP chairperson. The BJP had alleged that the law enforcers had beaten the youth to death as his parents were saffron party supporters.

The party had called a 24-hour bandh in the area on Saturday to protest the death. The state president of the saffron party's youth wing Saumitra Khan had alleged that the youth, who iron is taken, Khan said.

The teenager's father, however, said he is a TMC supporter and his son died by suicide. The police said, a magisterial probe has been ordered into the incident. The SP said that the boy was apprehended on Thursday afternoon on charges of theft.
