

She was crying and could not tell where she was going.

She was taken to the Stations Master's office. During interrogation, she gave the mobile phone number of her mother to the station staff. Her mother was contacted in that phone number. At 09:00 hrs., an aged lady came to the Station Master's office and identified her as her daughter. After complying with all official formalities, she was handed over to her and both mother and daughter left the station at 09.30 hrs. Her mother expressed her heartfelt gratitude for helping her to get back her daughter.
