

where the century-old Poush Mela is held. The university has decided not to organise the annual fair this year owing to the Covid situation. "I propose that the whole Poush Mela be organised by the central government. Many kinds of tensions will be created by vested interests, but these have to be thwarted and the central government should take up the responsibility of holding the fair," he said. The fair is organised by Visva Bharati, a central university with the Prime Minister as its Chancellor. He claimed that the university administration had become lax and in some cases irregularities had entered into it, adding that study of audit reports would display such irregularities. He said that the ploy by vested interests trying to control the fair and other events and activities at the university is to mount pressure on the vice chancellor and other top officials to
